

The Adventures of Tom Sawyer

Adventures of Huckleberry Finn is not just one of the most brilliant adventure stories ever written but also a wonderfully detailed portrait of nineteenth-century America. Adventures of Huckleberry Finn follows the exploits of Tom Sawyer's closest friend, Huckleberry Huck Finn, the son of the town drunk, who is placed under the benign guardianship of Widow Douglas. Although life at the widows house is comfortable, Huck finds the Widows attempts to civilize him infuriating. And when his abusive father turns up to make trouble, Huck decides hes had enough. He runs away and sets off down the Mississippi River. En route, he meets Jim, Widow Douglas escaped slave, and forges an unlikely friendship with him. As they sail down the river together, they encounter a strange cast of characters - thieves, bandits and feuding families. And when Jim is captured, Huck must enlist the support of his old comrade Tom to rescue his new friend.
