

Blood Money

The disillusioned Marines plan seems simple enough: steal a refrigerated tractor trailer loaded with frozen blood product; drive the pirated cargo from Reno, Nevada to the Port of Long Beach; collect a million dollars. Yet even the most deliberate plans can go sideways. On his campaign south, the Marines inner idiot takes charge, leaving a smattering of dead bodies in his wake. In the dark before dawn, a telephone rings. Kern County Sheriffs detective Lucas Lucky Dey, no stranger to being awakened with bad news, answers the call. But this time, the voice on the phone tells Lucky that his ill-fated younger brother has been gunned down on a blackened desolate highway. As Lucky chases the former Marine and his black semi-rig into the bowels of Los Angeles, hes thrust into a landscape of competing agendas. Conrad Ellis, the multi-millionaire entertainment mogul, demands justice for the murder of his starlet daughter. Ambitious federal attorney Lilly Zoller is determined to turn any opportunity into her personal spotlight. Rey Palomino, the morally challenged contractor, colludes with the former Marine hoping to crawl out from under a crushing debt. LAPD detective and dedicated single mom Lydia Gonzo Gonzales, reluctantly accepts her assignment to babysit the unrestrained Kern County detective hell-bent on avenging his brothers death at any cost. A knee-breaking private detective, some unwitting feds, and a coterie of gang-busting L.A. Sheriffs deputies further complicate the scenario and round out the cast of characters in this explosive and unpredictable thrill ride.
