

Doomsdays

Everyday is a Doomsday. Every hour is someones private armageddon. In this collection of twenty-two apocalypses one will encounter: -An Earth buried under strange blue ash, and overrun with the blue-encrusted undead -The dead of multiple wars, returning on one Halloween night -Puppet beings made from human trash, living and loving in a secret kingdom -A ghastly graveyard cherub that wont stay put -A monstrous version of ourselves, released from a parallel dimension and bent on our destruction Haunted Factories, a haunted zoo, worlds both surreal and nightmarish, stalked by phantoms, murderers, and monsters...unleashed from the rich imagination of Jeffrey Thomas, the acclaimed author of Punktown and Letters From Hades. Jeffrey Thomas is a writer to watch. I just cant put down his books once I start them. -Douglas Clegg, author of The Priest of Blood With brutal elegance and chilling subtlety, Thomas pulls his readers into his dark visions immediately from every opening line. -Paul Di Filippo, in Asimovs
