

Impossibilia

Aurora Award Finalist. The people we meet in Impossibilia are like any of us. They have secrets, fears, desires. Things they keep hidden. Things they keep locked away. Or try to. Only their things are a little different. A dead wife that won't leave. A wolf with a past. The secret to being the luckiest man alive. In Bouquet of Flowers in Vase, by van Gogh, remote viewing drives a search through the past for lost masterpieces. An ex-CIA agent, haunted by the presence of his dead wife, falls in love with a beautiful remote viewer with her own secret. But can viewing the past change the present? Cree Indian legends, a love triangle, a covert government agency, and shape shifters collide in the award-winning Spirit Dance, described in Challenging Destiny as ...a vivid and wonderfully written tale about Native Canadian spirits, in the vein of Thomas King. In Going Down to Lucky Town, an itinerant gambler chases a streak of luck across the country, while trying to win back the love of his daughter. The secret he finds forces him into the gamble of his life for the highest stakes of all: his daughter's life. And through all the stories, these characters share one more thing beyond what they hold inside. In the decisions they face, in the choices they make, they do what they do out of love. Lost love, found love, the love of their child. But love. So maybe they aren't that different from us after all. Enjoy! Doug Smith is, quite simply, the finest short-story writer Canada has ever produced in the science fiction and fantasy genres, and he's also the most prolific. His stories are a treasure trove of riches that will touch your heart while making you think. --Robert J. Sawyer, Hugo Award-winning author One of Canada's most original writers of speculative fiction. --Library Journal A great storyteller with a gifted and individual voice. --Charles de Lint Douglas Smith is an award-winning author of speculative fiction, with over a million words of fiction sold and a hundred and fifty stories in thirty countries and two dozen languages. He has twice won Canadas Aurora Award for speculative fiction, and has been a finalist for the international John W. Campbell Award, Canadas juried Sunburst Award, the CBC Bookies award, and Frances juried Prix Masterton and Prix Bob Morane.
