THE E Z KNIGHT REPORTS: a sexy, humorous and irreverent thriller series...an action adventure thriller series like no other! Great Beach/Airport Reads

1. KNIGHTS BIG EASY Killing is never easy for E Z Knight. But when hes doing away with some really despicable bastards, its not all that difficult. Voodoo, hoodoo and a girl named Poodoo make this years Mardi Gras the most fun but also the most dangerous party of all for E Z Knight! Knight goes to New Orleans to find his parole officers AWOL USMC son, and finds out he isnt the only one whos gone missing. Knight works with a retired jazz musician named Black Zack who restores old horns in a shop called Jazzy Brass. They team up with FBI Special Agent Pooh Dooley to find Billy and to stop the slave-traders. However, Knights old musician sidekick might be more than he appears. Time is running out. A cargo ship loaded with over 500 children is away to the deepest waters in the Gulf. With the threat of being exposed, Papa Legba has ordered the ship sunk as soon as it reaches Sigsbee Deep. But Knights not that worried about dealing with the two-dozen armed men on the slave ship, or the nighttime HALO jump he must make to carry out the rescueits the Voodoo Queen named Marie who wont rest until shes turned E Z Knight into a zombie thats making his skin crawl.

2. KNIGHTS LATE TRAIN With E Z Knight, if a mountain gets in your way, you dont go around it, you blow it up. When Doc Knight and his train go missing in a Colorado blizzard, E Z must brave the storm to find his father. In the process, he discovers Doc was involved in something more than conducting trains through the mountains. A hazardous materials train is loaded with highly toxic and explosive gas with a yield that could rival the Hiroshima A-bomb, as well as a yellowcake Betty

Crocker wouldn't even think about baking. The Thundertrain is headed for Denver, and the madman at the controls is bent on derailing the hazmat freight cars where they will cause the very highest body count. Hundreds of thousands of lives are at stake. E Z enlists the help of sexy railroad engineer Rillie Bee Wilde, and finds out she's as feral as her name. She takes him higher than he could ever reach in their helicopter. Soon, they find out who wins when hundreds of tons of locomotive meet a fragile whirlybird and a battle against two dozen mercenaries is waged in the dangerous Slaughterhouse Train Yard. With the Thundertrain only minutes from killing thousands of innocent citizens, E Z must decide whether to save his father and children, or stop the mercenaries from blowing the Mile High City to Hell. To do both he must move a mountain.

3. KNIGHTS RANSOM

For E Z Knight, when it rains, it pours and it seldom tastes anything like water. E Z has a $10,000,000 contract on his head and a whole boatload of hit men after his ass. Even worse, a young Russian beauty has just handed him a photo of his six-year-old goddaughter wearing a vest wired with enough plastic explosives to bring down the Golden Gate Bridge. E Z's former best friend, Jason Ryder, is up for an Oscar, and the man's newly divorced wife, actress Stella Hutchins, is E Z's very hot ex-girlfriend. With their little girl in jeopardy, the Hollywood couple must put on a facade of normalcy on the biggest night of their lives that could also be their last. Teaming up with a spicy little Russian who carries a Mac 10, an old woman who flips him the bird every morning, and a couple of his old comrades-in-arms, E Z's determined to track down little Sophie Ryder's abductors, rescue her, get her home unharmed, and do away with some very nasty bastards, all in short order. But in the hours to come, a deadly old nemesis returns, and a new team of very lethal assassins strikes at his heart. E Z never liked killing, but he's good at it, and the next forty-eight
