

Monster in the Mirror and other Short Stories - Includes Extended Previews of Super Zombie Juice Mega Bomb and The Little Wooden Chair

Includes two free additional short stories. That's three great short stories for younger readers. Could there be a hidden room somewhere in your house? And just what would you find lurking there? Nate, his little sister, and best buddy Dan, stumble upon a hidden room during a sleep-over. What they find inside is anything but friendly. Includes the bonus short story: Steven, Space Stowaway (originally published in the June issue of Spaceports & Spidersilk). When Steven's Mom leaves for a mission to Mars, he's determined to come along. Even if he has to sneak onboard. Just one problem: he gets caught. And the Captain has a particularly unpleasant way of dealing with stowaways. Includes the bonus short story: Bloody Marcy. When a game of Bloody Mary goes terribly wrong, someone might just die. Praise for Monster in the Mirror: This short story is small and sweet. It's creepy and has a feel of Neil Gaiman's Coraline to it. That eerie, childlike innocence mixed in with horror and suspense. It's a great read, and I really enjoyed it. - YA Books Reviewed A very good short story. Written in an eerie enough way to make (you) to look over your shoulder and avoid mirrors for awhile. - Tricia Bennett, AuthorWow! Excellent short story. Well written and very easy to read. I didn't get bored at all. I also liked the song and the ending was awesome. -B. Marie, Smashwords This is such a cute book! I loved the characters and everything else about it! Great Ghost Story and pretty creepy too. Definitely worth reading. -Laura F. One really good book, I love it ...it got better and better each minute, first good, then great, then excellent, then awesome, then scary, then done. -Toilit L. About the Author M.J.A. Ware, known as MJ to his friends, lives in the foothills of the Sierra Mountains with his wife and two daughters. arcades.
