

Moving Walls

Eighteen year old Mary was a simple woman will follow her love anywhere. She was guardian of David, a cold hearted, young man. But her world is turned upside down as she met Raha, another girl who falls for David. The two are forced to hunt and kill, at Davids command. They gain and lose friends as others vow allegiance and die to the silent man. No one seems immune as they become tangled in the web of Davids unnatural charm, in his unimaginable dream of treason. Together they seek to eradicate the darkness that haunts the living but are soon hunted by mysterious creatures from all ends of the earth. In his search for the ones who wronged him. David will sacrifice anything, even the woman that follow him, to realize his dream. But all that he finds is violence and betrayal.
