

Night and Fear: A Centenary Collection of Stories by Cornell Woolrich (Otto Penzler Book)

Cornell Woolrich published his first novel in 1926, and for four decades his fiction riveted the reading public with mystery, suspense, and horror. Americas most popular pulps Dime Detective, Black Mask, and Detective Fiction Weekly published hundreds of his stories. Classic films like Hitchcocks Rear Window, Truffauts The Bride Wore Black and Mississippi Mermaid, Tourniers Black Alibi, and Siodmaks Phantom Lady, as well as dozens of other movies, were based on his work. Novels like Deadline at Dawn, Rendezvous in Black, and Night Has a Thousand Eyes have won him the epithet father of noir. Every one of the countless many who have read and loved the work of Cornell Woolrich will welcome and applaud this publication of a new collection of tales the first in nearly two decades by the greatest writer of suspense fiction in the twentieth century. Woolrich lived a life of such deep despair and utter terror that he could do little except put those fears onto the printed page. In the masterfully wrought suspense of this volumes twenty stories, readers can enjoy works written at the height of Woolrichs powers, as well as many never before published in book form before now.
