

Red Sky At Morning

Paul Garrison's love song to New York. Its Fleet Week, 1999. Foreign ships clog the great city's harbor, and the bars and clubs welcome sailors celebrating. Then, from beneath the surface of the Hudson River, a rogue armada of Chinese submarines attacks. Admiral Tang Lis commandos seal the city and overwhelm an unprepared and unsuspecting populace. But here and there, fighting back against terrible odds, are determined New Yorkers: pugnacious Mayor Rudy Mincarelli; street-wise TV reporter Jose Chin; rookie NYPD partners Harriet Greene and Hector Sanchez. Then the invaders tangle with a couple two nights into the Blind Date from Heaven--tugboat captain Ken Hughes and socialite yachtswoman Kate Ross--and heroes are born.
