

Seasonal Stories from the Sagan

Two short stories set in the science fiction Catalyst Chronicles universe during the time of Twinned Universes. (Warning: contains spoilers for Twinned Universes.) Both stories take place on the starship Sagan. A Solstice in Space--Cass wants to celebrate the winter solstice with her friends and family, but they don't share her pagan beliefs. Can they create a ceremony that respects everyone's beliefs, or will she have to observe the solstice by herself? And how can you celebrate a solstice when you're not even on a planet? Snowballs in Space--Pauls plans to have a snowball fight with his friends may land him in hot water with the Sagan's officers when he borrows a lot of materials to make fake snow.
