

Shelter Me Home

The Alaskan wilderness is no home for the faint of heart, but Farrah Fennel has lived in the small town of Cooper Landing before and knows exactly what to expect. At least, she thinks she does. One chance meeting with her high school crush, Aanon Falk, and she's second-guessing her decision to run from the city. Farrah has come home hiding a secret. Out of options and with nowhere to go, she has to rely on Aanon's offer for her to live in a rustic cattlemans cabin up on his homestead. And if she can prove she is an asset, he just might give her a life she never dreamed of. Aanon's life is complicated, but when Farrah blows into town, he's tempted to let his guard down and enjoy life again. She's funny and vivacious, and he can't keep his mind off her for long. If she finds out what has turned his life upside down though, she'll leave his homestead for good. And the more he gets to know her, the more Farrah feels like his last shot at happiness.
