

The Beast With Five Fingers and Other Tales

The Beast with Five Fingers and Other Tales is a collection of classical horror and mystery short stories by William Fryer Harvey (1885-1937). The title story The Beast with Five Fingers was made into a successful 1946 horror film with the same title, and in 1981 remade by Oliver Stone as The Hand. The collection contains two additional Harvey's stories Across the Moors and August Heat.
