

Stinky Stands Up for a Stand Up (Stinky Stories Book 32)

A potential heir earns his inheritance after a night in a haunted house with Stinky. A cranky old coot realizes he's not going to live forever and asks Stinky to assess a potential heir. Stinky's willing to do anything if it's billable, but his plan to evaluate the young man without his knowing he's being evaluated doesn't seem to have a ghost of a chance of succeeding or does it? About Stinky Stories Stinky and Eddie appear in almost eighty comic short stories in the #1 bestselling Amazon series.

Stinky is chatty and insouciant, and while Eddie may not say as much, when something needs to be done, he's already doing it. They're as close as Brooklyn and Queens and as unlikely to separate. Stinky doesn't go looking for trouble, but he can't hide from it. It's part of the best-looking man on the planet package. His law and wealth management firm connects him with city leaders from all sectors, and the crazier their ideas, the more likely they are to lean on Stinky for help. Duty might call him to prescribe retail therapy for a recent heiress who can't adapt to her new station, award a prize for the most inappropriate entry at an art fair or provide inspiration to an opera singer making her dramatic debut.

Stinky and Eddie would like to live quietly, but lucky for us it never happens. Stinky and Eddie are supported by a collection of outrageous guest stars and an ever-expanding cast of relatives. The stories are witty and literate and readers don't have to leave their brains in a jar to enjoy them. Whether it's a flat-out farce, bedroom comedy, sexy romp, sly satire or screwball family intrigue, you're never far from a happy ending in every Stinky story. Isn't that what we really need these days?
