

The Tyranny of the Dark

Two of Pulitzer Prize-winning author Hamlin Garland's books are in this Kindle eBook: The Tyranny of the Dark & The Shadow World. The Tyranny of the Dark: A young woman with psychic powers is in danger. Strangers aim to exploit her while her lover promises to rescue her from the Tyranny of the Dark. The Shadow World: Hamlin Garland's novel is based on psychics, para-psychology, and mediums.

About The Author: American novelist Hannibal Hamlin Garland (1860-1940) was celebrated for his books involving hard-working Midwestern farmers. He too grew up on a Wisconsin farm and moved to the Midwest before Boston, where he settled into his writing career. Main-Travelled Roads, a short story collection based on farm life, was his breakthrough novel. His adventures in the Yukon during the Klondike Gold Rush inspired The Trail of the Gold Seekers (1899). In 1917, he published A Son of the Middle Border. The sequel, A Daughter of the Middle Border, won the 1922 Pulitzer Prize for Biography.
