

Selected Shorts: The William Hurt Collection

A collection of poignant, romantic and funny tales performed by Academy Award-winning actor William Hurt. This collection includes a bonus track of an exclusive interview with William Hurt. Hurts readings are thoughtful, tender, romantic, and resonant. A treasure. Stories in this set include: Aleksandar Hemon's Blind Josef Pronek - A Bosnian man struggles to make a new life in America; Richard Ford's Communist - A teenage boys relationship to his single mother and her new boyfriend against the background of the stark Montana landscape; Ron Carlsons Towel Season - A tender story of a scientist and his wifes rocky moments as he works on a tough math proof; Tobias Wolffs Nightingale - A bullying father suddenly has doubts on his drive with his stoic son to military school to toughen up the boy. Selected Shorts is an award-winning, one-hour program featuring readings of classic and new short fiction, recorded live at New Yorks Symphony Space. One of the most popular series on the airwaves, this unique show is hosted by Isaiah Sheffer and produced for radio by Symphony Space and WNYC Radio.

[\[PDF\] The Killing of Mumld the woman on the 4.20 from Waterloo to Portsmouth.' Two strangers. One shared interest. Murder. Ben slit a man's throat. Sandra's son, Carl witnessed a murder. With Carl on a Witness Protection Programme, Sandra fled London to live anonymously in a remote village on the Isle of Wight where she becomes increasingly isolated and vulnerable. Terrorised by an unknown stalker, the police are unable to help and she turns to Ben. What makes a respectable, middle-aged woman want to sleep with a killer? More importantly, can the relationship give her the love she craves and help Ben find redemption? Hate, fear and lies boil over in a page-turner with love at its black heart.](#)
