

War Comes To The Big Bend (Thorndike Western I)

In 1917, wheat from Washington States rich farmlands will be vital to winning the war in Europe and feeding the world. Kurt Dorn, son of a German father and an American mother, has a successful farm. Yet there are groups that would like to prevent the harvest ? like the Industrial Workers of the World, which is financed not only by Germany, but secretly by a German wheat magnate. Published from Zane Greys original manuscript.
